TERRITORY-WIDE -- Come Tuesday, citizens of the U.S. Virgin Islands will go to the polls in St. Croix, St. Thomas and St. John to vote for candidates of their choice. This will happen in tandem with U.S. mainland citizens, who are currently enthralled in a battle royal race between Democratic nominee Hillary Clinton, and Republican nominee Donald Trump. The Consortium will have results of both the local and presidential elections as they come in.

Polling Places

Some polling places, which is where citizens go to vote, have been changed due to some being shuttered for various reasons. We've compiled the updated list courtesy the Elections System of the Virgin Islands, to help simplify your voting process.

St. Croix Polling Places

- Dunstan's Episcopal School poll will serve the Elena Christian and John F. Kennedy polling precincts.
- Juanita Gardine poll will serve the Juanita Gardine polling precinct

(unofficial precinct).

VITRAN

The Elections System on Friday made known via press release that VITRAN will be operating regular hours on Tuesday, serving as an option for citizens without transportation to get to their respective polling places. VITRAN will run from 5:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., according to the release.

By appointment only, VITRAN's Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) transit unit will transport seniors and special needs citizens directly to polling places. Appointments must be made 24 hours in advance by calling (340) 773- 1290 and request VITRAN. The special service was granted by Department of Public Works Commissioner Gustav James, upon request by Lilliana Belardo de O'Neal, chairwoman of the St. Croix Board of Elections. It was not clear whether the special service would be made available to St. Thomas-St. John District citizens, but interested persons should call 340-774-5678.
