St. Thomas police are seeking the community's assistance in locating a 17-year-old minor who was in the custody of the Department of Human Services, but ran away, V.I.P.D. Media Specialist Sakeeda Freeman announced via press release Wednesday.

According to Ms. Freeman, Christopher David, Jr., escaped D.H.S. custody on Wednesday wearing a turquoise T-shirt, black jeans, and gray sneakers.

Mr. David is a black male, 5'7" tall and weighs 140 lbs. He is slim built, has brown eyes and black and gold hair, according to the V.I.P.D.

Police are asking anyone who knows of Mr. David's whereabouts, or spots him somewhere, to contact Detective Rael L. Donastorg or Detective Cleopatra Brooks at (340) 715-5541, 715-5543 and 715-5540, 911, or Crime Stoppers USVI at 800-222-8477.
