

The Virgin Islands Consortium

H.H. Tire And Battery Officially Reopens In New Location

VIC News / Published On December 27, 2016 10:02 PM /

Staff December 27, 2016

ST. CROIX -- H.H. Tire and Battery officially reopened its doors at its new location on Christmas Eve, after the original site was ravaged by fire about a month ago, the company announced today via press release.

According to the release, the H.H. Tire & Battery team proudly returned to their routine of providing tires, batteries and automotive care for their loyal patrons. The morning was full of smiles and pride as the employees have worked tirelessly to get the business back up and running as it has for the last 52 years, the release states. For the opening, the business's third-generation owner, Kevin Hensley, was joined by his father, second generation owner, Patrick Hensley, his mother, Patricia Hensley, and his brother, Scott

Hensley.

"There are many people to thank for their support in helping us reopen our doors to the St. Croix community in a little less than a month. Our priority was to get our long time employees back to work so they could continue to support their families which was accomplished this past weekend. We are elated to be back in business and look forward to welcoming back our loyal customers," said Kevin Hensley.

The business has resumed its normal operating hours of Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. and Saturday from 8:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. Appointments for vehicle repairs are available at 340-778-5962. Special Holiday hours are as follows: closed Monday, January 2nd, closed Friday, January 6th, at 12pm and closed Saturday, January 7th.

The new H.H. Tire & Battery location is across the street from Junie's restaurant at the intersection of Hess Road and South shore. If you are traveling from the east end, turn left after Gateway Gas station and they are at the first intersection.

© Viconsortium 2026