

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Watch: St. Croix Residents Protest WAPA

Videos / Published On January 25, 2017 11:40 PM /

Staff January 25, 2017

St. Croix residents throughout Wednesday gathered near the Virgin Islands Water and Power Authority's Sunny Isle Annex office in protest of the semiautonomous entity's impending base rate hike, which is set to increase the power bills of most customers after they were promised a 30 percent reduction upon the completion of the company's propane conversion project. Above, Mario Moorhead, legendary radio personality, joins residents in the protest action.

View the original embedded media