Mardi Croix is held each February as St. Croix's annual Mardi Gras celebration organized by the Krewe de Croix, a group of Louisiana transplants and Mardi Gras enthusiasts, according to a description of the event on Got to St. Croix. Mardi Croix is a parade that takes place on the North Shore of St. Croix and includes all the colors, music, food and let-it-loose partying that Mardi Gras is known for... with a Crucian twist, according to the description.
