As July 15 approaches, the V.I. Bureau of Internal Revenue is reminding the public that offices will be open all day to receive tax payments. Taxpayers are also reminded that they cannot file their returns using the e-filing option, B.I.R. said.

The bureau's offices on all three islands will be open with the following hours for the convenience of taxpayers:

- Monday, July 13: 8:00a.m. to 5:00p.m
- Tuesday July 14: 8:00a.m. to 5:00p.m

Wednesday, July 15:

- St. Croix and St. Thomas: 7:00a.m. to 9:00p.m.
- St. John: 8:00a.m. to 5:00p.m

Taxpayers who are unable to file their 2019 returns by the July 15th due date are reminded that they can file an extension by using Form 4868, according to B.I.R. To obtain approval of the extension, the taxpayer must properly estimate the tax liability due and file the Form 4868 no later than July 15.

The extension is only for the filing of the tax return, B.I.R. said. Taxpayers who owe taxes must pay the tax due on July 15th to avoid the failure to pay penalty. The extension will be granted until October 15, 2020.

Questions concerning the extended office hours can be directed to the Processing Division at (340) 715-1040, extension 2223.
