

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Watch: We Visited Easter Camping Sites From East To West On St. Croix

Culture / Published On April 14, 2017 10:06 AM /

Staff April 14, 2017

One of the cherished traditions on St. Croix is Easter camping. Thousands of islanders leave the comfort of their homes and head to multiple beaches with tents -- some bringing along the entire family, for at least four days (some stay weeks) of camping.

We toured camping sites from east to west, including Cramer Park Beach, Green Key Beach, Salt River Beach, Frederiksted Beach, Fort Frederik Beach and Rainbow Beach. Enjoy the video, and have a happy Easter.

View the original embedded media

