

The Virgin Islands Consortium

The Final Half Iron Man Racing Event Happens Sunday. Road Restrictions Inside

Community Center / Published On May 04, 2017 10:30 PM /

Staff May 04, 2017

The final Half Iron Man racing event takes place on Sunday, bringing to an end a beloved and long-running race on the big island, that many had come to regard as a mainstay.

Below, the V.I.P.D. road closure notice for the final race, which goes into effect from 3:00 a.m. Sunday, to 3:00 p.m. the same day.

Parking Restrictions

- Parking is prohibited along the entire Triathlon route include the staging area at Christiansted Wharf.

- Parking is prohibited on Church Street, Christiansted between King and Company Streets.
- Vehicles parking along the triathlon route will be cited and towed at the owner's expense.

Vehicular Movement Restrictions

© Viconsortium 2026