ST. CROIX -- Department of Health on Sunday held its Zika Action Day event at Tropical Ten Pins in Castle Coakley. There, participants received a variety of D.O.H. services aimed at preventing the spread of the Zika virus, and included a number of bouncy castles for children.

According to D.O.H. Director of Public Relations Nykole Tyson, over 500 people participated in the awareness effort, deeming the turnout a resounding success.

Below, scenes from the event and comments from D.O.H. Commissioner Michelle Davis.
