

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Watch: Waste Haulers Keep Pressure On Waste Management

Videos / Published On August 02, 2017 12:17 PM /

Staff August 02, 2017

St. Croix waste haulers, in one accord, continue to protest Waste Management's new tipping fees. They gathered outside W.M.A.'s Williams Delight offices on Tuesday morning, demanding a stay on the fees. The stay was not granted, but W.M.A. says it will return to the Public Services Commission to recommend a territory-wide flat rate. However, a date for the PSC meeting was not given.

View the original embedded media