ST. CROIX — A man felt the fury of his ex-lover during an incident that resulted in the woman being arrested, according to a V.I.P.D. news release.

Police arrested 33-year-old Kimberly Gereau of Estate St. Georges for allegedly assaulting her ex-lover with her car and spraying him with mace. She was charged with second-degree assault, domestic violence, according to V.I.P.D. Public Information Officer Toby Derima.

Gereau was allowed to post bail of $5,000 and was released to a third-party custodian pending her advisement hearing, according to Mr. Derima.
