

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Watch: VIGL, Recently Blessed By Senate And Governor To Build Horse Racetracks In Territory, Already Upsetting Horsemen

Business / Published On August 30, 2017 11:33 AM /

Staff August 30, 2017

James Bates, above, owner of Bates Trucking and also an avid horseman, on Tuesday shared some concerns about a recently signed deal with VIGL, the firm that recently won approval from the Senate and Governor Mapp to construct and operate new horse racing facilities in St. Croix and St. Thomas. Watch.

View the original embedded media