From the Department of Education:

Teachers and school support staff in the St. Thomas - St. John District are asked to report to their respective schools tomorrow, Monday, September 18, 2017 at 11:00 a.m. to meet with their administrators about preparations for the approaching Tropical Storm Maria and plans for the clean-up process following Hurricane Irma.

Please disregard the earlier press release stating teachers and support staff should forgo plans to report to schools. We apologize for the miscommunication.
