

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Watch: Downed Utility Poles Were All Over St. Croix Following Maria

Videos / Published On September 25, 2017 09:42 AM /

Staff September 25, 2017

While the cleanup process is well underway on St. Croix following the passage of category 5 Hurricane Maria, the storm downed utility poles from east to west of the island, leaving residents without power for what Governor Kenneth Mapp has said will be months before electricity is fully restored to the island.

View the original embedded media