ST. THOMAS -- The V.I.P.D. on Tuesday announced that a body had been found in the St. Thomas harbor near the Coast Guard dock, and that the force was investigating the matter while seeking the community's assistance, according to Glen Dratte, the V.I.P.D.'s public information officer.

Mr. Dratte said the V.I.P.D. was dispatched to the location at about 8:13 a.m., and met Coast Guard personnel already on the scene.

Upon arrival, officers discovered the male victim, who was examined by EMTs and later pronounced dead.

He was identified as Eral Frett, 63. At the time of his discovery, the deceased was wearing a long, brown pants, black sneakers and a multicolored shirt, according to police.

Mr. Dratte said the V.I.P.D.'s major crimes unit was investigating the incident. Police are asking anyone with information to call 340-774-2211 ext., 5569, or 340-714-9830. You may also contact Crime Stoppers USVI and leave your anonymous tip here.
