ST. THOMAS -- V.I.P.D. officers in St. Thomas are investigating what may have led to the death of a 67-year-old man, whose unresponsive body was found at the Bolongo Hotel Resort (police did not specify the exact location) at around 8:00 p.m. on Sunday.

The victim, identified by next of kin as Dale Harrigan, was found face up on the ground, said Glen Dratte, the V.I.P.D.'s public information officer.

Mr. Dratte did not say whether there were any signs of trauma on the victim's body, which would suggest foul play. But he said the V.I.P.D. would first perform an autopsy before determining the cause of death.
