

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Watch: Drivers Transporting Linemen Strike After Not Receiving Pay For 3 Months

Videos / Published On January 12, 2018 03:24 PM /

Staff January 12, 2018

Bus drivers contracted to transport linemen in the territory to restore power to work, began striking a week ago after going over three months without pay. According to the bus drivers, the contractor has blamed WAPA for the issue, stating that it has not received money from the utility to pay the bus drivers. Watch the video below.

View the original embedded media

View the original embedded media