

The Virgin Islands Consortium

If You're In St. John And Own Property (Apartments, Homes, Etc.) Now's Your Time To Make Money

Community Center / Published On February 21, 2018 12:25 PM /

Staff February 21, 2018

ST. JOHN -- With thousands of residents displaced by Hurricanes Irma and Maria, the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), through its Direct Lease Program, has been reaching out to property owners, to include those with homes, apartments and studios, to help house displaced families.

On St. John, FEMA is offering attractive deals. Find the St. John rates below:

- Studio: $1,950 per month
- 1 Bedroom: $2,316 per month
- 2 Bedrooms: $2,878 per month

- 3 Bedrooms: $3,608 per month
- 4 Bedrooms: $3920 per month

Before any property can be approved to participate in the FEMA Direct Lease program, FEMA will conduct inspections to ensure that the property meets a basic criteria, and considered move-in ready. All units must be safe, sanitary, and functional, to include utilities, appliances and other furnishings.

Units will be assessed to assure that they have working smoke detectors, fire extinguishers, functional windows, and at least a fridge and a stove, among other assessment criteria.

To participate, call 972-863-1537, or send email to kyaisha.jenkins@gmail.com.

© Viconsortium 2026