

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Alert: WAPA Experiences Major Electrical Service Interruption In St. Thomas-St. John District

Community Center / Published On March 05, 2018 01:27 PM /

Staff March 05, 2018

The Virgin Islands Water and Power Authority is experiencing a major electrical service interruption in the St. Thomas St. John District, after two generating units at the Randolph Harley Power Plant, seen above, tripped at approximately 7:45 am. Plant personnel are working to bring two other units on line to facilitate the restoration of service, WAPA said.

Developing...