The Virgin Islands Department of Education said Monday it has extended the deadline to Friday, August 7 for public school students to enroll in the Department's "Learn from Home" option for the 2020-2021 school year. Parents requiring school bus service for their children must also submit an application by the August 7 deadline.

Both forms can be accessed from the www.vide.vi website at the "COVID-19 Forms" menu on the front page. The documents are available in English and Spanish.

In order to enroll in "Learn from Home," students must already be registered in the V.I. public school system. For registration information, visit www.vide.vi – For Families – Public School

Registration. School bus service is available to both public and private school students.
