ST. CROIX -- April 8 at about 2:00 p.m. was the last time the family of 80-year-old Mitchel Michael saw him, according to V.I.P.D. Public Information Officer Glen Dratte.

Worried family members are seeking help from the community in locating Mr. Michael, who was last seen heading east on the Queen Mary Highway in the Mount Pleasant West area.

Mr. Michael suffers with a medical condition, according to family members, although the condition was not revealed.

The 80-year-old man is a black male with brown eyes, a dark complexion and a bald head, according to police. He is 5 feet 9 inches tall and weighs 165 pounds. He was last seen wearing a red and white striped shirt, black long pants, and a black hat. He was also carrying a black handbag.

If you happen to see Mr. Michael or know of his whereabouts, contact the V.I.P.D. at 340-778-2211.
