

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Police Seeking Community's Assistance In Finding 11-Year-Old Boy

VIC News / Published On May 07, 2018 09:37 AM /

Staff May 07, 2018

ST. THOMAS -- The Virgin Islands Police Department is seeking the community's assistance in finding an 11-year-old boy who went missing at about 7:30 p.m. on Sunday.

According to V.I.P.D. Public Information Officer Glen Dratte, the search for the child, named Wilson Forbes (seen above), was focused on the Hidden Valley and Anna's Retreat areas in St. Thomas.

The boy was last seen wearing a purple t-shirt, blue shorts and blue slippers. He is said to like water and may be drawn to any nearby pools or open cisterns, according to Mr. Dratte.

Wilson is nonverbal autistic and may not respond to someone calling him, Mr. Dratte said. But he may answer to "Ky-Ky", "Ky" or "Kylon", according to police.

If you have seen or happen to come into contact with Wilson, contact the V.I.P.D. at 340-774-2211, Crime Stoppers USVI at 1-800-222-8477, or 911 immediately.

© Viconsortium 2026