

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Watch: Seventh-Day Adventist Youth March Through Christiansted In Stand Against Drugs, Violence And Abuse

VIC News / Published On July 23, 2018 10:24 AM /

Wyndi July 23, 2018

ST. CROIX -- Seventh-day Adventist youth from the U.S. Virgin Islands, British Virgin Islands, Anguilla and St. Maarten took a stand against drugs, violence and abuse Saturday afternoon while marching through the streets of Christiansted. Participants also toted placards about the love of a God who they believe is both powerful and compassionate. Watch scenes from the march below.

View the original embedded media

