

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Police Seeking Help In Finding Missing Man Who Suffers From Dementia

Community Center / Published On July 25, 2018 10:56 PM /

Staff July 25, 2018

The Virgin Islands Police Department is seeking the community's assistance in locating a man who was reported missing on Tuesday evening and suffers from dementia.

The individual, 57-year-old Timothy Howard, was last seen at 8:00 a.m. Tuesday. He is said to be 5 feet, six inches tall, weighs about 150 lbs, has blue eyes, brown hair and a light complexion, according to police.

Mr. Howard is said to frequent the Estate Princesse area in Christiansted. He is of a slim build and was last seen wearing a navy-blue baseball cap, blue jeans and brownish tan sneakers, according to police.

The V.I.P.D. is asking anyone who may come in contact with Mr. Howard to call the Ancilmo Marshall Command at 340-773-2530 or 911.

© Viconsortium 2026