

The Virgin Islands Consortium

BMV St. Croix Closed Until Further Notice Because Of Air Conditioning Issues

Community Center / Published On August 21, 2018 11:43 AM /

Staff August 21, 2018

The Bureau of Motor Vehicles on St. Croix will be closed "until further notice" because of air conditioning problems, a release the bureau issued late Monday has made known.

"The air conditioner is not operating at this time. Again, we apologize for any inconvenience," the bureau said.

No further information was divulged.