ST. CROIX -- President of Bohlke International Airways (B.I.A.), William R. Bohlke, on Wednesday signed a statement of support confirming the commitment of B.I.A. to the U.S. National Guard and Reserve.

According to the release, Mr. Bohlke serves as an aircraft commander in the U.S. Air Force (U.S.A.F.), flying the C-130 Hercules for the Puerto Rico Air National Guard, while his wife Laurie is a veteran of U.S.A.F.

The proclamation was signed in honor of the first ever National Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR) week Aug. 19-25, which President Donald Trump officially declared Monday.

“Our team includes members of active and retired military, including pilots and administrators,” Mr. Bohlke said. “Our family has supported all branches of the military in our near six decades on St. Croix and we always will.”
