

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Update: Public Schools Territory-Wide, Government Offices Territory-Wide Closed Due To Inclement Weather

Community Center / Published On November 08, 2018 12:20 PM /

Staff November 08, 2018

Last updated: November 11, 2018 9:09 a.m.

In an update, Government House said government offices territory-wide are closed today because of inclement weather. Previously, only St. Thomas-St. John government offices were closed. The release said essential employees should report for duty.

Separately, the Department of Education announced that due to inclement weather across the territory, schools in both the St. Croix and St. Thomas-St. John Districts are closed for instruction.

© Viconsortium 2026