

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Classes Resume January 8 For All Public Schools, D.O.E. Says

Community Center / Published On January 03, 2019 11:17 PM /

Staff January 03, 2019

Acting Commissioner Dionne Wells-Hedrington announced on Thursday that all public schools across the territory will resume regular instruction on Tuesday, January 8.

According to the release, inaugural events and activities will not interfere with school openings. However, schedules are subject to change following the inauguration of Governor-elect Albert Bryan.

Schools are closed on Monday, January 7, in observance of Three Kings Day, D.O.E. said.

For more information, contact the Office of Public Relations at (340) 643-4787.

