Governor Albert Bryan has granted administrative leave to non-essential government employees on St. Croix, one of his first actions as governor, giving St. Croix residents an opportunity to participate in inaugural activities set for Tuesday on the island.

The announcement was made before Mr. Bryan was inaugurated as the territory's 9th elected governor today in the Emancipation Garden on St. Thomas (story on the inauguration coming up.)

Mr. Bryan will also grant administration leave Wednesday for all non-essential government employees on the islands of St. Thomas and St. John in recognition of the inaugural activities on St. John that day.
