

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Watch: Three Homicides In 9 Days On St. Croix Challenges New Governor

Crime / Published On January 09, 2019 02:57 PM /

Staff January 09, 2019

A business man ambushed, robbed and killed, a 17-year-old gunned down while riding a bicycle in Whim. St. Croix has seen 3 homicides in 2019, not a good start for the year. The crime situation will have to be one of the first matters addressed by Governor Albert Bryan, as it affects many aspects of the community and the territory's growth.

View the original embedded media