Governor Albert Bryan marched with men from the parking lot of the University of the Virgin Islands Tech Park all the way to the institution's Great Hall, where he keynoted the university's Charter Day event. The march, organized by UVI's Brother's with a Cause, whose goal is to empower men mentally, physically and spiritually, was the group's third annual. Also participating was UVI President Dr. David Hall among other staff of both Mr. Bryan's and the university.
