

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Watch | Bryan Honors Youngster Who Rescued Friend From Drowning

Videos / Published On April 03, 2019 02:46 PM /

Staff April 03, 2019

View the original embedded media

Governor Bryan on Tuesday at the St. Croix Educational Complex honored Saeed Phillips, a teenager who two weeks ago rescued his drowning friend, with the Courageous Citizen Award. Saeed also received a new iPhone from AT&T, a paid summer internship to work at the Department of Planning and Natural Resources' Fish and Wildlife arm, and a soon-to-be-established Virgin Islands swimming program for youngsters will be named after him. Watch.

Feature Image: Governor Bryan poses for a photo with Saeed Phillips, second from left, AT&T Representative Alexandria Veridailes, center, Phillips' brother Khaled Heywood and his Mother Estica Ceasar, far right. (Courtesy Gov't House)

© Viconsortium 2026