Lieutenant Governor Tregenza Roached announced Monday that the 2019 property tax bills have been issued to all property owners on record as of January 1, 2019. The 2019 bills are due and payable on or before August 14, 2019. Interest and penalties will accrue after October 14, 2019, pursuant to an executive order issued Monday.

Property tax bills can be paid online at the Office of the Lieutenant Governor's Tax Collector's Office website at <https://propertytax.vi.gov>. Payments can also be made in the form of a certified check, money order, or credit card at any Office of the Lieutenant Governor cashier locations. Payment plan options are available and can be arranged by visiting the Office of the Tax Collector.

According to the release, consistent with past billings, the 2019 tax bill will include information on unpaid tax years. Property owners who have not paid their prior year tax bills are encouraged to contact the Office of the Tax Collector to set up a payment plan.

Payments can be made on all three islands at the following locations:

- St. John: Islandia Building at 18-23 Enighed St. John (340) 774-2991
- St. Thomas: Builders Emporium at 52E-1 Estate Thomas (340) 774-2991
