

Image not found or type unknown

Another Homicide Rocks the BVI One Week Following First Shooting Death of 2020

Crime / Published On September 12, 2020 05:04 AM /

Staff Consortium September 12, 2020

Image not found or type unknown

Scene of BVI's second homicide for 2020 in the Spring Gut area in Tortola on Thursday, Sept. 10, 2020. By. BVI NEWS

Tortola BVI — The British Virgin Islands on Thursday recorded its second homicide of the year just one week following the island's first murder of 2020.

The Royal Virgin Islands Police Force (R.V.I.P.F.) confirmed the incident Thursday night, stating that the victim, identified as 50-year-old Matthew Daly, a resident of Fat Hog's Bay in Tortola, was found unresponsive in the Spring Gut area of the island during the afternoon time.

The victim, who was shot, was pronounced dead on the scene, according to police.

(For all VI Consortium breaking news directly to your phone, download our app here.)

"Persons with any information related to this incident are asked to contact Detective Inspector Vernon Larocque directly on 368-9809 or via the Major Crime Investigation Team on 368-5682. All information will be treated with discretion and confidentiality will be assured," said the R.V.I.P.F.

© Viconsortium 2024