ST. THOMAS — V.I.P.D. officers on Friday responded to an armed robbery incident at the Puma Gas Station located in Bovoni.

According to police spokesman Toby Derima, on Friday at 9:14 p.m., the 911 Emergency Call Center dispatched officers to the gas station to investigate the matter. Upon their arrival, an employee reported to police that an unknown male purchased gas, then made his way inside the facility where he robbed the gas station at gunpoint, demanding money from the cash register.
