

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Watch | Pumpa Proudly Represents USVI On Miami Carnival Stage As Dept. of Tourism Ramps Up Marketing

Tourism / Published On October 14, 2019 10:18 AM /

Staff October 14, 2019

View the original embedded media

CENTRAL BROWARD PARK, Ft. LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA -- The U.S. Virgin Islands took over the Miami Carnival stage with the energetic VI Soca Artist Dennis Pumpa Liburd on Sunday evening. As he performed for the responsive crowd, the territory's logo along with the official poster of the Crucian Christmas Festival were on magnificent display for all to see. The USVI's participation in the well-attended event was part of the Dept. of Tourism Commissioner, Joseph B Boschulte's strategy to entice not only the diaspora, but travelers from all over to the USVI.

Pumpa's appearance on Sunday was one of two activities the Dept. of Tourism held over the weekend, the first being a VI Ambassadors event at The Dalmar Hotel in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. Our publisher, Ernice Gilbert, described the affair as memorable in his writeup.

Virgin Islanders represent near Dept. of Tourism booth at Miami Carnival 2019 (VI Consortium)

Children hold up Virgin Islands flags during Miami Carnival 2019 (VI Consortium)

Virgin Islanders represent during Pumpa's performance at Miami Carnival 2019 (VI Consortium)

Virgin Islanders pose for picture near the Dept. of Tourism booth at Miami Carnival 2019
(VI Consortium)

Pumpa hypes up crowd during performance at Miami Carnival 2019 (VI Consortium)

Rotunda of Flags on grounds where Miami Carnival 2019 was held (Central Broward Park & Broward County Stadium) Picture courtesy VI Consortium

© Viconsortium 2026