

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Two Masked Gunmen Rob Yum Yum Restaurant in Peters Rest, Hold Employee at Gunpoint

Two masked gunmen held a restaurant employee at gunpoint at Yum Yum in Peters Rest shortly after midnight and fled with an undisclosed amount of money, according to VIPD. The employee was unharmed, and Criminal Investigation Bureau detectives responded.

Crime / Published On September 13, 2026 12:38 PM /

Staff Consortium September 13, 2026

Yum Yum in Peter's Rest, St. Croix. By. V.I. CONSORTIUM.

ST. CROIX — Two masked men armed with guns robbed Yum Yum restaurant in Peters Rest at approximately 12:01 a.m. Saturday, holding an employee at gunpoint before fleeing with an undisclosed amount of money, according to the V.I. Police Department.

Police said the restaurant employee reported that two masked men entered the business armed with guns, held her at gunpoint and took an undisclosed amount of money before fleeing the scene.

The employee was unable to provide a description of the vehicle or vehicles in which the suspects fled, according to VIPD. She was not injured during the robbery.

Detectives from the VIPD Criminal Investigation Bureau responded to the scene and were meeting with the employee as the investigation got underway.

Police had not provided additional information about the suspects or the circumstances surrounding the robbery at the time of the initial notification.