AARP V.I. in collaboration with the V.I. Council on the Arts will celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month with a virtual concert set for Saturday, AARP VI has announced. The concert features Eddie Russell and the band, along with Rivert Diaz on vocals and Quelbe legend Stanley Jacobs on flute.

The event will be streamed live on Facebook on AARP's page and WTJX's on Saturday beginning at 7:00 pm. Opening the event will be a performance by Romanza, a local Latin music band, followed by Eddie Russell at 8:15 p.m. "These two bands will entertain the virtual audience with the sounds and rhythms of Latin America, including latin jazz, salsa, merengue, bachata, boleros, etc.," said AARP VI.
