ST. THOMAS — V.I.P.D. officers on Wednesday at around 10:37 a.m. arrested Suni R. Abiff, age 39 of Estate Mariendahl, and charged him with obstruction of justice, willful destruction or concealment of evidence, and third-degree false reporting.

According to V.I.P.D. spokesman Toby Derima, Abiff was observed on surveillance video removing a firearm from the body of the deceased victim of a shooting that occurred at the Four Winds Plaza shopping center on October 24. Abiff was released after making bail of $5,000, pending his advisement hearing.

According to the release, detectives are still seeking information relative to this incident. If you know what occurred or have other details, you may contact police by calling 911, the Criminal Investigation Bureau at (340) 774-2211 extension 5569, or anonymously at (800) 222-TIPS.
