St. John — Police on Monday arrested a woman for allegedly striking a man with an adjustable wrench, V.I.P.D. Public Information Officer Toby Derima has announced

According to Mr. Derima, on Monday at approximately 11:37 a.m., detectives of the Domestic Violence Unit arrested Eleanora Taylor, age 44 of Estate Adrian, and charged her with third-degree assault. The victim stated in the initial report that after a dispute, Ms. Taylor assaulted him with an adjustable wrench.

No bail was set for Ms. Taylor in accordance with the territory's domestic violence statute, and she was remanded to the Bureau of Corrections pending her advisement hearing.
