

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Department of Health Announces More Covid-19 Testing Pop-Up Sites

Community Center / Published On February 02, 2021 03:21 AM /

Kyle Murphy February 02, 2021

V.I. Dept. of Health Commissioner Justa Encarnacion during the Bryan administration's weekly press briefing Monday announced additional Covid-19 testing pop-up sites.

"We are making testing easier by providing testing at various locations," she said, and announced the following dates and times as the department's next pop-up events.

On St. Thomas: Tuesday from 1:00 p.m.- 3:00 p.m. at the Home Depot parking lot and Thursday at the Bordeaux Fire Station from 1:00-3:00 p.m.

Ms. Encarnacion announced the most testing dates for St. Croix. She said there will be testing at the Canegata Recreation Center on Feb 2, 4, 9, 11, 16, 18, 23, and 25 from 10:00 a.m - 1:00 p.m.

On St. John, the pop-up testing will take place at the V.I. Port Authority Gravel Yard from 1:30 p.m.- 4:40 p.m.

© Viconsortium 2026