

Image not found or type unknown

VIPD Still Searching for Missing 80-Year-Old Man on St. Croix, British Woman Last Seen in St. John

Community Center / Published On March 16, 2021 07:11 AM /

Staff Consortium March 16, 2021

Image not found or type unknown

From left, Sarm Joan Lillian Heslop and Michael “Dodor” Emmanuel. By. THE VIRGIN ISLANDS POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Virgin Islands Police Department said Monday it continues to search for two individuals who were both recently reported missing.

Eight-year-old Michael “Dodor” Emmanuel was reported missing on February 19. Emmanuel is a Black male, standing around 5 feet 5 inches in height, and weighs approximately 150 pounds. He has black hair and brown eyes, with a dark brown complexion.

He was last seen on February 19 at around 6:45 a.m. at his residence in Canebrake Apartments, wearing a brown striped pajama pants, white vest, and no shoes. A $3,200 reward for information leading to his whereabouts has been offered.

Forty-one-year-old Sarm Joan Lillian Heslop was reported missing on March 8. Heslop is a Caucasian female, standing about 5 feet 7 inches in height. She has a tattoo on her left shoulder. She was last seen on March 7 aboard the vessel Siren Song, that was moored in Frank Bay, St. John.

According to V.I.P.D. Public Information Officer Toby Derima, detectives are asking for the community's assistance with information regarding the whereabouts of Emmanuel on St. Croix and Helsop on St. John.

If you have information on either of their whereabouts, you are urged to call 911, the Criminal Investigation Bureau on St. Croix at (340) 778-2211 or on St. Thomas at (340) 774-2211.