

Image not found or type unknown

Watch: Coast Guard Rescues Crewmember of Cruise Ship who Suffered Heart Attack Near St. Croix

Top Stories / Published On November 27, 2019 06:48 AM /

Staff Consortium November 27, 2019

Image not found or type unknown

The crew of a Coast Guard Air Station Borinquen MH-65 Dolphin Helicopter hoists a Filipino crewmember from the Marella Explorer 2 cruise ship, approximately 50 nautical miles southeast of Saint Croix. By. U.S. Coast Guard District 7 PADET San Juan

Watch: The crew of a Coast Guard Air Station Borinquen MH-65 Dolphin Helicopter hoists a Filipino crewmember from the Marella Explorer 2 cruise ship, approximately 50 nautical miles southeast of Saint Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands Nov. 26 2019. The crewmember was transferred to Emergency Medical Services personnel in Saint Croix, who transported the patient to the Juan F. Luis Hospital for a higher level of medical care.

