ST. JOHN — Banco Popular has announced that due to a change of location, the ATM of St. John will be operating until Wednesday, April 28 at 3:00 p.m. After this date, service will be temporarily inactive. The new location will be announced soon.

While the ATM service is restored in St. John, the institution reminds its clients that they can always utilize online banking tools for their transactions.

TeleBanco services will remain available 24 hours, seven days a week. For assistance, clients may call 1-888-724-3659. Any additional changes in operations will be notified through social networks and news media.
