Governor Albert Bryan will hold a press conference specific to horse racing in the territory and the development of Randall Doc James racetrack on St. Croix on Wednesday at 1 p.m. This conference was announced during the weekly Government House press briefing by Communication Director, Richard Motta Jr.

It can be viewed on the Government House Facebook page or the Government Access Channel.

Mr. Motta concluded by saying “Join us for that important announcement from the governor which I am sure will be welcome news for our horse racing enthusiasts in the territory.”
