The V.I. Police Department (VIPD) is inviting those interested in starting a career in public safety to attend a virtual career fair and speak directly with VIPD recruiters and public safety professionals.

A Virtual Career Fair allows candidates to use technology to log in from anywhere and learn about job opportunities in public safety and law enforcement, as well as the numerous benefits. Listen to recruiters as they discuss career opportunities and benefits with the VIPD. The Virtual Career Fair has been pushed back an additional week and will now be held at 10 a.m., Friday, June 11.

There are many types of positions to explore:

- Entry Level Police Officers
- Certified/Lateral Police Officers
- Police Auxiliary
- Community Service Officer
