

Image not found or type unknown

Latest Winners of $100,00 and School-Based Personnel 'Vax-to-Win' Lotteries Announced

Coronavirus / Published On August 17, 2021 08:07 AM /

Ernice Gilbert August 17, 2021

Image not found or type unknown

Vax-to-Win Lottery Winners in both the general and school-based offerings.

A V.I. Lottery official joined Governor Albert Bryan during Monday's Covid-19 press briefing to reveal the latest winners of the administration's "Vax-to-Win" lottery incentive, this time including the first set of winners of the special lottery for school-based personnel.

Last week winners (the week of August 6) were revealed to be Ione Noel on St. Croix, who won the $100,000, and Barbra Ortega in the St. Thomas-St. John District, who won $50,000, as she had only received one dose of a Covid-19 vaccine at the time of the drawing.

For the school-based personnel drawings, the St. Croix District winners were:

1. Joseph Auguste (St. Croix Educational Complex): $25,000
2. Henry Awika (University of the Virgin Islands): $10,000
3. Minerva Delauney (St. Croix Central High School) $5,000

School-based personnel drawing winners in the St. Thomas-St. John District were:

1. Vernon Callwood (Charlotte Amalie High School): $25,000
2. Eric Christian (University of the Virgin Islands) $10,000
3. Eugene Farrell (Saints Peter & Paul High School) $5,000

Latest Covid numbers

As of Monday there were 39 hospitalizations with eight patients on ventilators. There were 305 active cases: 192 on St. Thomas, 107 on St. Croix and 6 on St. John, according to the V.I. Dept. of Health.