

The Virgin Islands Consortium

VIPD Classifies Death of Woman Found in Car Partially Decomposed a Homicide, Territory's 2021 Homicides Now at 33

Crime / Published On September 07, 2021 05:39 PM /

Staff Consortium September 07, 2021

To find Vista Concordia, take the Salt River Road, then the second left heading up Scenic Drive Road. From there, follow the road up the hill for two miles. By. VI CONSORTIUM

ST. CROIX — The V.I. Police Department on Tuesday classified the death of a woman found last month in a car partially decomposed in Vista Concordia a homicide.

When the initial press release was issued on August 22, the V.I.P.D. said, "This case has been classified as a possible homicide, pending an autopsy for cause of death."

In Tuesday's release, the police department stated, "The Virgin Islands Police Department is advising the community that the death of Lucy Lindquist, age 56 of Morningstar Circle found — deceased with stab wounds in a vehicle in Vista Concordia — on August 20 has been officially classified a homicide. According to the autopsy, the stab wounds Lindquist suffered caused her death."

The classification carried the territory's homicide count for 2021 to 33, the latest being the shooting incident at the Home Depot Parking Lot in St. Thomas that resulted in the death of 20-year-old Keoner Barron.

Detectives investigating this case are urging anyone with information to call 911, the Crime TipLine at (340) 778-4950, or Crime Stoppers USVI at (800) 222-TIPS.

Correction: Sept. 8, 2021

A previous version of this story, because of a text error, included the year 2020 instead of 2021 as the year the 33 homicides have occurred. We've updated the story to reflect the correct information.