The V.I. Dept. of Tourism has announced “Soca on the Pier”, an outdoor event on the island of St. Croix set for Oct. 16 whose audience will be those fully vaccinated against Covid-19.

Produced by D.O.T.'s Division of Festivals, “Soca on the Pier” features an action-packed lineup of Virgin Islands musicians, including Pumpa, Blackest & Fusion Band, VIO International, and Lips Int'l, according to the release.

The event, which is limited to 200 attendees, is only open to patrons who are fully vaccinated against Covid-19, D.O.T. said. “The U.S. Virgin Islands is maintaining its vigilance related to managing the Covid-19 public health crisis, and we are doing everything in our power to support Governor Albert Bryan Jr.'s initiative to increase the vaccination rate in the Territory,” said Tourism Commissioner Joseph Boschulte.

“Our goal is to encourage people in the community to get vaccinated so we can continue returning to a sense of normalcy in the Territory,” said Ian Turnbull, director of the USVI Division of Festivals.

According to the release, the concert will be hosted on the Frederiksted Pier in St. Croix and guests must comply with Covid-19 safety protocols, including physical distancing, mask-wearing and hand sanitization.

The event, the third of its kind produced by the Division of Festivals, will also be livestreamed on Facebook, YouTube and The Virgin Islands Consortium. Previous events were held on St. Thomas and St. John.

Tickets are $30 and are available for purchase at the Department of Tourism's office in Frederiksted and the MTOC office in Christiansted.
