

Image not found or type unknown

WAPA Governing Board, Interim CEO Issue Statements Following Jean Greaux's Passing

WAPA / Published On December 02, 2021 06:38 AM /

Staff Consortium December 02, 2021

Image not found or type unknown

The V.I. Water and Power Authority Governing Board and WAPA's interim executive director Noel Hodge have issued separate statements in light of Jean Greaux's passing.

"On behalf of the Governing Board of the Virgin Islands Water & Power Authority, it is with a heavy heart that I share the unfortunate news that earlier this evening the Virgin Islands Water and Power Authority and the Territory lost an unforgettable Voice in Jean Greaux," said WAPA Board Chairman Kyle Flemming. "Communication is an art that Jean showcased across multiple disciplines and industries. This versatility is a testament to his dedication to keeping his community adequately informed. Our sincerest condolences go out to Jean's family and loved ones as we will surely keep them in our prayers during these trying times."

Said Mr. Hodge, "The Virgin Islands Water & Power Authority profoundly regrets the passing of Mr. Greaux who was an important and valued member of our management team for almost 7 years. He will be deeply missed. We are requesting that the community join us in prayer for the family and our coworkers during this difficult time."

According to police, Mr. Greaux was found in his vehicle at about 5:23 p.m. with a single gunshot wound to his upper body. The incident was reported to the 911 Emergency Call Center by a concerned resident.

© Viconsortium 2024